

DAWES INTEREST IN BANK FUNDS TOLD BY PAINE

Says Nominee Only Followed Usual Fi- nancial Practice

CHICAGO, Sept. 18. (AP)—The connection of Charles G. Dawes, Republican candidate for vice-president, with the Lorimer bank case was declared without "basis for criticism" in a formal statement issued here tonight by John Barton Payne, secretary of interior under President Wilson and now chairman of the American Red Cross.

Mr. Dawes' action in furnishing $125,000 in cash to William Lorimer and his associates in 1912, when they converted their LaSalle Street National Bank here into a state bank—the LaSalle Street Trust and Savings Bank—recently was attacked by the state convention of the Illinois Federation of Labor.

Mr. Payne explained that he was counsel for Mr. Dawes and the Central Trust company of Illinois of which Mr. Dawes then was president and that in view of the Lorimer bank case he desired "to give a correct statement of facts."

"What was done by the Central Trust company and General Dawes in providing the cash, and by the auditor (of the state of Illinois) in counting it, knowing that it had been provided for that purpose, had been the practice in Illinois for generations," Mr. Payne's statement said. "It was shown on the trial without contradiction that the leading banks of the state had done hundreds of times precisely what General Dawes and the Central Trust company did. The good faith of the transaction was definitely recognized by the courts. The appellate court of Illinois in deciding the case said:

"We think the Central Trust company and Dawes acted entirely innocently in the matter and were doing a mere act of courtesy for Lorimer and his bank. There is no contention that the Central Trust company or Dawes received any remuneration for what was done. The matter of organizing the Trust and Savings Bank and the turning over of the assets of the National Bank to it was all fully explained to the officials of the state banking department and everyone connected with the matter seems to have acted in good faith. They all thought that what they were doing was a substantial compliance with the law of this state."

"No possible basis exists for criticism of General Dawes. His act was a mere courtesy extended to a neighbor without charge or hope of reward."

The circumstances surrounding the Lorimer bank transaction were set forth as follows in Mr. Payne's statement:

"William Lorimer and his friends in May 1910, organized the LaSalle Street National Bank which operated on LaSalle Street in Chicago until October 21, 1912, when the stock holders of the bank decided to change from a National Bank to a Trust company—the LaSalle Street Trust and Savings Bank—under the Illinois state laws."

"This step required the approval of the comptroller of the currency (since the national bank was to retire from business) and the approval of the auditor of the State of Illinois who has charge of all banking matters under the state laws. The approval of the comptroller of the currency which required a finding that the LaSalle Street National Bank was a solvent institution was given."

Money Loaned

"When application was made to organize the state institution the auditor stated to Mr. Lorimer that it was the practice to require the actual cash capital and surplus of the proposed organization to be presented and counted. Mr. Lorimer went to the Central Trust company and asked General Dawes, then its president whether the Central Trust company would cash the cashier's check of the LaSalle Street National Bank for $125,000, stated (Continued on Page Three)

DAVIS BEGINS HIS MIDWEST CAMPAIGN WITH CHICAGO TALK

Labor Problems and Honesty In Government Main Themes

CHICAGO, Sept. 18. (AP)—John W. Davis, Democratic presidential candidate opened his midwestern campaign tonight with an address in the stock yards district. He emphasized labor problems, honesty in government and Americanism.

This will be Mr. Davis' only speech in Illinois at this time. Tomorrow night he will speak in Gary, Ind., and Saturday at South Bend and Fort Wayne. From the latter place he will go direct to New York where he will arrive Sunday to resume his eastern drive.

The Democratic presidential nominee arrived here early today from his tour of the west. He was given an ovation by crowds that greeted him at the station and that lined the streets thru which he passed to the city hall, where he was officially welcomed by Mayor William E. Dever.

The nominee was met at the station by George E. Brennan, Democratic national committee man from Illinois, A. A. Sprague, Democratic candidate for United States senator and other party leaders. Later he conferred with them at his hotel regarding his speech tonight and on conditions in the state.

Mr. Davis told these leaders that he had been very much encouraged by conditions in most western states. It is his intention to return to the west early in October.

Mayor Dever provoked great applause when he told the assembly the state candidates would address them. "But," he added hastily, "the Democratic candidate for the presidency will be the first speaker of the evening."

A. A. Sprague, the Democratic candidate for the United States senate and Normal L. Jones of Carleton, the candidate for governor had places on the stage and were scheduled to speak during the evening. National Committeeman Brennan also had a prominent place on the platform.

15 SQUARE MILES OF SOUTHEAST PART OF MT. SHASTA CAVES IN

Mud Creek Canyon Col- lapses Following Recent Mud Overflow

DUNSMUIR, Calif., Sept. 18. (AP)—Approximately fifteen square miles of the southeastern section of the top of Mount Shasta caved in today causing the collapse of Mud Creek canyon which has recently been overflowing with mud and rock. The walls of the canyon for a distance of eight miles crumbled with a terrific roar which was immediately followed by a great cloud of dust and volcanic ash that hung over the mountain for several hours.

As the dust cloud appeared to rise from the crater left by the cave-in persons living at McCloud Weed and Mount Shasta and other places at the mountain base reached the alarming conclusion that the ancient peak had burst into eruption. Many frightened persons were on the point of exodus this afternoon and their alarm in many instances has not been quieted tonight.

Grave fears are entertained at McCloud that the mud flow, which has recently been quiescent will be renewed with dangerous effects. The fallen walls of the Mud Creek canyon are damming up a huge reservoir of water which, when released may cause an inundation of all land at the southeastern base of the mountain.

SEE GREAT FUTURE FOR WAR AIRCRAFT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18. (AP)—Aviation experts aiding the select house committee investigating aircraft are convinced that "aircraft will play the most important part in any war of the future," said a formal statement issued here today, which declared the committee and its aviation aides were keeping an eye on present and prospective developments in the industry.

J. Frederick Richardson, chief consulting investigator to the committee presented a preliminary report at a meeting of some of the committee members today based on a recent European aircraft investigation tour. Several army-navy technical advisers also met with the committee men to assist them in dealing with engineering problems of military and mail aviation.

LEAGUE REACHES COMPROMISE ON ARMS PROTOCOL

Would Call Confer- ence After Part Of Members Sign

GENEVA, Sept. 18. (AP)—The exact relation to be established between the protocol on arbitration and security and the international conference for the reduction of armaments which will be convoked after the protocol has been set up and adopted, caused one of the most laborious discussions today since the opening of the present assembly of the league of nations.

Some delegates on the sub-commission of twelve adhered strongly to the position that the protocol in question should come into force only after execution of the decision which may be reached by the forthcoming conference on armaments. Others, on the other hand argued tenaciously for hours that the protocol on arbitration and security, if ratified by a sufficient number of states, should go into force even before the armaments conference is convoked.

Eventually the delegates reached what is considered a common ground and there only remains tomorrow to attain complete agreement on the exact phraseology of the clause known as Article Nine in the original Benes draft which was drawn up after consultation with the British and French delegations. According to the most reliable information available tonight, this tentative agreement will probably take the form of making it clear that after a sufficient number of ratifications, the entering into force of the protocol will be suspended pending the convocation of the armaments conference.

This does not differ much from the original Benes conception as to what should be the definite connecting link. The controlling idea behind the protocol discussion is that the protocol must not only be signed by representatives of the governments but receive actual ratification by the respective national parliaments. What number of ratifications will be deemed necessary has not yet been fixed.

GENERAL DAWES MAKES REAR PLATFORM TALK

ROCKFORD, Ill., Sept. 18. (AP)—Asserting that the constitution is furnishing the most important campaign issue now before the people of the United States, Brigadier General Charles G. Dawes, made a rear platform talk at the Illinois Central Railroad station here tonight. He is enroute to Sioux Falls, S. D., where he is scheduled to give an address tomorrow night.

General Dawes declared that the constitution must not be made "a political football to be kicked around" by the demagogue, who are opposed to the existing order of things. He attacked "Robert M. LaFollette's attempt to transcend the jurisdiction of the constitution over inalienable rights of citizens."

"If I am spilling the beans by talking in support of the constitution, then I am going to break the bean market," General Dawes concluded.

LAFOLLETTE SPEAKS IN NEW YORK CITY

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Senator Robert M. LaFollette launched an offensive in his presidential campaign with an address tonight to an audience which filled Madison Square Garden. He spoke for one hour and a half, for the most part following the prepared text in which he directed an assault against the candidates and policies of both of the old line parties.

When the independent candidate stepped on the platform—his first appearance before an audience since he declared his candidacy more than two months ago—he was cheered for fifteen minutes. As he directed thrusts at his opponents he repeatedly received the approbation of the crowd, half of which had paid a fee to gain admission to the vast auditorium.

Senator LaFollette read slowly from manuscript.

Once he departed from his text for a brief extemporaneous criticism of President Coolidge's stand on the postal salaries bill and utterances regarding labor.

Minister Accused Of Causing Two Deaths

METROPOLIS, Ill., Sept. 18. (AP)—The body of Mrs. Lawrence M. Hight, whose husband the Rev. Lawrence M. Hight is being held at Mount Vernon on a warrant charging murder in connection with his wife's death, was ordered exhumed. It was announced here this evening by State's Attorney Walter Robert who has been communicating with State's Attorney Frank G. Thompson of Jefferson county who ordered the minister arrested this morning.

Mrs. Hight died at Ina last Friday and the funeral was held here Sunday afternoon. Metropolitan having been the family's home before leaving here thirteen years ago. It was said that Mrs. Hight had been one of the largest ever held in Massac county, hundreds having motored more than 100 miles to attend the funeral.

A reason for the exhumation of Mrs. Hight's body was not made known. According to a report made by a Chicago chemist who examined the contents of her stomach, it contained sufficient poison to cause her death. A local undertaker was instructed tonight by State's Attorney Robert to exhume the body tomorrow morning.

Prosecuting authorities of Mount Vernon are expected to arrive here tomorrow morning to be present at the exhumation of the body.

MOUNT VERNON, Ill., Sept. 18. (AP)—While the Rev. Lawrence M. Hight, Methodist preacher of Ina, 12 miles south of here, was being taken to the county jail here on a murder charge, following the death of his wife last Friday, the body of Wilford Sweetin who died under mysterious circumstances at Ina, two months ago, was being exhumed.

Arrest of Rev. Hight was ordered after a Chicago chemist had reported finding in Mrs. Hight's stomach sufficient poison

THOMPSON PICTURES NUMEROUS BENEFITS OF DEEP WATERWAY

Would Cause Chicago To Become Largest City In The World

CHICAGO, Sept. 18. (AP)—Former Mayor William Hale Thompson discussed before eighty prominent citizens of Chicago today the plans for a campaign to make possible a deep waterway from Chicago to the Gulf of Mexico.

In picturing the benefits to be derived from the proposed deep waterway, Mr. Thompson said: "It will mean Chicago will get coal at a dollar less per ton. There will be 100 miles of factories along the river and they will be supplied by a supersystem of barges. The money of the world will flow into Chicago. The population of the great valley between the Alleghenies and the Rocky Mountains will be one hundred million. Chicago will grow to be the largest city in the world and the most powerful industries will congregate here to do their business."

Senator Robert C. Druesed of Omaha, another speaker declared that the farmers of the Missouri Valley have lost money in the last two years. "A deep waterway will enable them to ship their goods at a profit and they will not be at the mercy of the railroads."

Former Mayor Thompson announced that a waterway banquet will be held in Chicago, October 6th, at which 2,500 persons are expected. Twenty five cities have already ordered tables, including Peoria and Joliet, Ill., Milwaukee, Wis., and New Orleans.

FRENCH FULFILLING LONDON AGREEMENT

DUESSELDORF, Sept. 18. (AP)—The French authorities in the Rhineland and the Ruhr are diligently applying the measures of amnesty provided for in the recent London agreement. All persons expelled from the regions almost ready have been notified they are at liberty to return, and arrangements are being made to reinstate German officials, discharged or suspended.

Legal proceedings against 760 persons have been withdrawn and 145 other persons held for trial or who had been sentenced to jail have been released. The German government has expressed to the French authorities its gratitude for their promptness in putting the amnesty measures into force.

HONDURAS REBEL GENERALS DEFEATED

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, Sept. 18.—The rebel Generals Aguilar and Matute have been defeated at El Yacodo. In their flight the rebels abandoned twenty wounded men and the bodies of eighteen others killed in the fighting. They left behind some war material.

to cause death. The death certificate gave promine poisoning as the cause of the woman's death. It was at the instigation of the minister himself that the examination was made.

He explained that his wife possibly had been poisoned by his enemies, made by his war on bootleggers.

The coroner's inquest was continued today to permit further investigation before returning a verdict. The proprietor and a clerk of a grocery, where the minister claims to have purchased his wife's death, testified that no such ham had been purchased for the Hight family at the store.

According to the minister's statement, his wife and two children were made ill when they ate the ham, but he was not.

Sweetin died two months ago. He had been a member of Rev. Hight's church and at the time of his death the Rev. Hight was ordered arrested by State's Attorney Frank G. Thompson, and his residence was searched revealing an empty box which had contained poison of the same kind as had been found in Mrs. Hight's stomach. The minister asserted he had purchased the poison to kill rats.

When questioned about his presence at the Sweetin home during Wilford's illness the Rev. Hight denied he had administered the sick man any medicine.

"I am innocent of any charges that have been brought against me," said the minister when he was brought here. "It is hard to lose your wife and have your children left without a mother, but the blow is rendered much harder by such scandal as has been spread about me."

While the preacher was seated in the sheriff's automobile awaiting his transfer to the county jail here, women of his congregation surrounded him to assert their confidence and faith in him.

The planes probably will take off for Dallas, 225 miles away, about 10 a. m., tomorrow, Lieutenant Smith declared tonight. From Dallas they will make an 800 mile hop to El Paso. Ten army planes from Brooks and Kelly Fields, San Antonio, will accompany the air Magellans to Dallas.

Tonight while mechanics from Brooks Field prepared for tomorrow's jump their pilots and observers were being lionized in Muskogee.

The airman plan to sleep last night in Muskogee and then continue on to the field until an hour before their scheduled departure, Lieutenant Smith said.

AIRPLANE VIEW HELD BY COOLIDGE DENIED BY PARISIAN EDITOR

PARIS, Sept. 18. (AP)—The theory that airplanes will some day replace battleships in offensive and defensive war is rejected today in a long article in Le Temps which discussing the comparative merits of naval and aerial war weapons, expresses the belief that the former will never be supplanted by the latter. The article was prompted by a report from Washington that President Coolidge has no sympathy with efforts to increase the naval budget and feels it is better to spend money on aircraft than on capital ships. This report has been given much publicity in the French press.

Le Temps takes issue with President Coolidge's reported view—albeit it does not mention the airplanes' failure as a bombarding power against capital ships—and refers longhally to the destruction by aircraft of the American warships New Jersey and Virginia off Cape Hatteras in September 1923.

"Despite the fact" declares the newspaper, "that these bombardments were conducted under particularly favorable conditions, that the weather was clear and the sea calm, and that the battleships were at anchor, the airplanes were not able to do effective bombing until they reached the low altitude of 900 meters."

Le Temps further says that the bombing power of planes is useless in low visibility or in low clouds, that planes are helpless at night and unable to leave shelter in stormy weather. These arguments, the article avers, militate more strongly against land planes as weapons of offense or defense against naval forces. In conclusion the newspaper forebodes a greatly increased development in the near future in naval airplanes and airplane carriers not supplanting warships, but assisting them and supplementing their effectiveness.

Expect To Make 225 Mile Hop To Dallas This Morning

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Sept. 18. (AP)—Thunderstorms with intermittent gusts of wind here early today were believed by airmen to jeopardize the chances of the world fliers of taking off later in the day for Dallas. Local committees are making arrangements to continue the entertainment for the visitors.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Sept. 18. (AP)—Oklahoma was host to the army around the world fliers tonight.

After a three hour and fifty five minute flight from St. Joseph Mo., this afternoon the three giant Douglas cruisers landed at Hatbox Field, army airway station at 5:20 p. m. Central Standard Time.

The Chicago flag plane piloted by Lieutenant Lowell H. Smith was the first to land the Boston II, with Lieutenant Leigh Wade and the New Orleans with pilot Erik Nelson followed at minute intervals.

A crowd of 25,000 persons which had waited thru the afternoon greeted the men, bursting into cheers as the globe encirclers appeared over the haze to the north, circled the field, and landed. Six army planes which had gone to meet the famous airman landed after the last of the Douglas cruisers had come to earth.

The planes probably will take off for Dallas, 225 miles away, about 10 a. m., tomorrow, Lieutenant Smith declared tonight. From Dallas they will make an 800 mile hop to El Paso. Ten army planes from Brooks and Kelly Fields, San Antonio, will accompany the air Magellans to Dallas.

POSITIONS OF ARMIES IN CHINA UNCHANGED

CHANGHAI, Sept. 19. (AP)—There is no evidence here this morning of any retreat on the part of the Chekiang army which has been defending Shanghai against the attacks of the Kiangsu forces. Neither are any changes noted in the positions of the two armies west of the Yangtze. The officers at the Lungwha headquarters of the Chekiang army are emphatic in their statements that the revolt of the third army at Hangchow, the Chekiang capital, does not mean the utter defeat of Chekiang and express confidence in the loyalty of a considerable number of the troops remaining within the province. This, they insist, is particularly true of those which have been engaged near the Anhwei border.

Peking, Sept. 18. (AP)—The drive for Peking by the Manchurian army of change Tso-Lin is in full swing, and the Peking government is rushing troops north to repel the invasion. It was announced officially this evening. A special war council of Chekiang leaders was still in session early this morning. A spokesman said it was the intention to continue the struggle against the Kiangsu armies seeking to capture Shanghai. They admit, however, that the revolt was a "great disaster."

MOOSE CAMPAIGN TO ELIMINATE ALL OF COUNTY POORHOUSES

Plan Would Be Patterned After Moosehaven At Orange Park

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Sept. 18. (AP)—A campaign that will sound the death knell for the poorhouse all over the United States is to be launched tomorrow night by the Loyal Order of Moose, in state convocation here, it was declared by H. S. Lighthall of Chicago, Great North Moose, tonight.

The convocation opened here today.

"The county poorhouse, unable to properly care for the old people, has been a disgrace to the country long enough," Mr. Lighthall declared. "Altho not officially reported yet, we have been making a national survey that is now ready to be announced. No longer will our mothers and fathers be running the risk of having this tragic fate befall them. It is one of the most deplorable customs in our country and by our plan it will be abolished."

"Our plan is to have the states form colonies for the aged such as we have at Moosehaven, Orange Park, Florida, where we operate a community for aged members and their wives. All the inhabitants keep themselves busy at tasks, such as their bodily condition and previous training may permit or make advisable. The community is largely self-governed, operating thru a regularly chartered lodge of the order in which all male inhabitants have membership."

"This plan would not be a lodge project but state project, so that the aged would never be separated and could live their lives to the end, happily and usefully."

A big dance was held for the members in the convention in the Moose Home tonight as the climax of the first day's activities at which a huge crowd of members, wives and sweethearts were present.

ROYAL TOMB CHAPELS ARE FOUND IN EGYPT

CAIRO, Egypt, Sept. 18. (AP)—Two royal tomb chapels of the third dynasty believed to be the earliest stone buildings known to the world, are reported to have been discovered near the famous pyramids of Sakkarah, about 15 miles south of Cairo. Cecil Firth, of the Egyptian antiquities department considers the discovery one of the most important made by archaeologists in recent years, especially in its bearing on the early history of architecture.

Built in a style differing in almost every respect from what is known as Egyptian architecture, the chapels are thought by the archaeologists to have been built by the king who had been found digging on the site for two months to have been the burial places of princesses or queens of the third dynasty. Fragments of gravestones of royal princesses are said to have been found nearby.

The excavators expect the site will be completely cleared during the winter.

When various district delegations went into caucus tonight there was no well defined expression of opinion concerning the name of the probable successor to Commander Quinn and there still was talk of dark horses.

J. J. Drain of the District of Columbia and John R. McQuigg of Ohio were the names most frequently heard in groups in hotel corridors and on street corners, but other names also were reported under consideration in the executive caucuses under day tonight.

The organization is designed, its leaders said to promote better fellowship between the marines and sailors at the national conventions and to enable them to have a rallying place.

TRIBUTE PAID TO MEMORY OF FRANKLIN

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—A plea for international accord among scientists and high tribute to the memory of Benjamin Franklin marked the address of Dr. Fritz Haber famous German chemist before the world scientists gathered here in honor of the centenary of the Franklin Institute.

Professor Haber was the discoverer of the process of extracting nitrates from the air that enabled the Germans to manufacture high explosives after the allied forces had cut them off from imports of Chilean nitrate in the world war.

"There are two demands that must be satisfied to bring about commercial peace," Professor Haber said. "We must have greater and cheaper production of goods and we must have a new creed which will discourage production for personal gain and bring about greater co-operation."

The progress of the natural sciences, he declared offers greater promise for bettering social conditions than any other factor.

That is an optimistic booster for LaFollette who predicts that 10,000,000 women will vote for the WI. consin senator. A glance backward shows that four years ago Gov. Cox, the Democratic nominee, received, but 9,000,000 votes, both men and women.

Those who oppose capital punishment and get soft-hearted about arch criminals cannot get away from the fact that there are 17 percent fewer murders in England than is true here in the United States. Capital punishment prevails there and justice is much more swiftly executed.

The state raises a huge sum thru taxation for its general expenditures. It is worth thinking about that 24 percent of all the money thus raised is devoted to philanthropic work, the care of its wards.

ARREST FOR BOOTLEG PATRONS

Several dozen prominent citizens of Little Rock, Ark., have been arrested for buying whisky from bootleggers. They include a former governor, state highway commissioner and prosecuting attorney and other men high in the public life of the state. The witnesses are bootleggers who have been arrested frequently for violating the liquor laws.

This, no doubt, will be regarded by the citizens involved as an outrage. Consumers of contraband beverages sometimes acknowledge that it is a legitimate part of the prohibition game to arrest those who sell the stuff, but they consider it in extremely bad taste, and perhaps unconstitutional, to bother those who buy it. Other citizens, impartial as between these classes, and with a less callous regard for the law than either of them, fall to see much difference in culpability between the two sides of the bootleg liquor traffic.

However outrageous it may be to arrest a leading citizen on this charge, it may prove to be a better way of enforcing the law than any yet found.

WORK FOR BOYS

The family of Richard Loeb has learned something from the fate of that misguided youth, and is determined that no other members shall follow his disastrous course. The solution is a simple one.

Richard, they figure, went wrong because of indulgence, idleness and irresponsibility. There will be no more coddling of Loeb sons. Thomas, aged 12, still at a formative age, has been sent to a big farm owned by the family in Michigan. He will be obliged to work as hard and conscientiously as the son of any poor farmer in the neighborhood, rising at dawn, doing regular chores any other work assigned him. His older brother, Ernest, has been made manager of the farm and spends his whole time directing it.

Let this example be applied in a few thousand other cases around the country, and there will be some profit, after all, from that hideous Chicago murder.

and says he doesn't intend to think of dying until he is at least 100. A friend explains the remarkable preservation of his health by his "eternal vigilance against illness," particularly his absolute regularity of habits. He has his diet severely limited and prescribed carefully, in detail, by his physician, and never breaks over.

He "tests his state of health every morning," as an engineer tests his engine. He is up every day at precisely the same hour. He has his invariable golf at 11 a. m., and his automobile drive at 2:30 p. m. His mealtimes never deviate from their schedule by as much as 10 minutes, from one year's end to another, nor does his time of retirement. All the restricted activities of his life are followed in clockwork order.

That is a good way, undoubtedly, to conserve one's physical forces and prolong life—if one can stand it. Unfortunately the system requires an ingrained docility to systematic procedure that is unusual. Something of Mr. Rockefeller's regularity and scientific attention to his physical engine would benefit everybody. But the extent to which he carries the thing might drive an average person insane, or drive him to occasional excesses to vary the eternal monotony, thereby inviting death at a normal age.

Most men and women simply have to kick over the traces now and then, in diet, sleep and other matters. They must smash the program occasionally if for no other reason than to prove to themselves that they are its masters and not its slaves. And possibly the sense of freedom so preserved is worth a few years' time.

WHITE HALL G. A. R. MEET WEDNESDAY

White Hall, Sept. 18.—It is a matter of exceptional note that White Hall has a G. A. R. post with 11 members, a meeting of which was held in the city hall Wednesday afternoon with eight members present as follows: W. H. Bogges, commander; G. R. Adams, adjutant; J. C. Baker, L. N. Ballard, A. A. Lorton, John Raines, Dr. A. W. Foreman and W. C. Baker. Joel Crabtree and Jefferson Lawson were in from Hillview earlier in the day, and did not remain for the session. The purpose was to organize the work of providing all soldier graves with permanent flag receptacles, and G. R. Adams was named president, R. B. Pearce secretary and Lynn C. Smith treasurer. Reports were read from several at a distance who have made contributions to the fund and commended the movement. A lengthy and highly commendatory letter, accompanied with the second largest remittance to date, came from Senator A. S. Cuthbertson, who is slated to speak on Decoration Day next year.

The veterans have decided to have a group photograph made at an early date for presentation to the library, showing if possible the full membership of the largest and most active G. A. R. post in this section of the state.

It is the purpose of Mr. Vinyard to move his family to East Alton, they having retained residence at White Hall since he has been in St. Louis.

A LAMENT

O World! O Life! O Time!

On whose last steps I climb,

Trembling at that where I had stood before;

When will return the glory of your prime?

No more—oh never more!

Out of the day and night

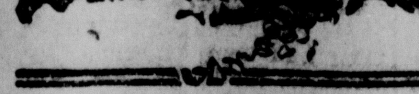

A joy has taken flight:

Fresh spring, and summer, and winter hoar

Move my faint heart with grief, but with delight

No more—oh never more.

—Percy Bysshe Shelley.

IT DOES MAKE A DIFFERENCE

BY ALBERT APPLE

You frequently hear a man say in lemonade tones: "Aw, it don't make much difference who's elected. The people are the goat, no matter who wins."

This indifferent attitude to ward politics is as contagious as smallpox. And it is spreading. More than any other factor, it is responsible for the increasing tendency of citizens to fail to cast their ballots—nearly half staying away from the polls in the 1920 residential election.

Shout it from the house-tops: IT DOES make a difference who is elected. American municipalities long since learned that it does make a difference whether a community's chief of police is a strict law enforcer or in league with the underworld.

They long since learned that plunging a nation into war and sending the voters out to be shot at, depends principally on the makeup of Congress.

They long since learned that it does make a difference whether their boss in business is kindly and fair or heartless and slave-driving.

And it does make a difference, who's elected to any political job—to all political jobs—from president down to dog catcher.

The cynical growl that it "don't make no difference who's elected," IS BIG TALK. It is preposterously false, obviously false.

In electing the president and other political office holders this fall you are to large extent determining what will happen to your pocketbook's contents in the next four years. The choice of president and other national employees will unquestionably have an important effect in shaping the cost of living and the conditions under which the rising generation will live.

Any man with common sense will see this. And he will not fail to vote.

Before voting, he will listen to both sides—rather, to all sides—in an attempt to arrive at the truth before selecting his favorite. Political speeches are not as interesting as Thrill Murders and baseball and movies, but they occasionally have horse sense and, if backed by popular support, can lead to solutions of many of our gravest problems.

Increasingly, as the American people have taken politics less seriously economic problems have become more serious. Accept the politician's Bunk with a grin, in one ear and out the other. But watch for Common Sense, then back it—for your own and your family's prosperity, welfare and happiness.

Criminals

Dealing with crooks is apt to make any man cynical about human nature. An official of a big bonding company expresses his opinion that women are more honest than men because they are more susceptible to fear.

This official may have liver trouble.

Fear doesn't keep people honest. They are honest by choice. Ninety-nine out of 100 would be honest even if there were no punishing laws for the wayward. Criminal laws are made for a very small minority.

Clothes

We do things on a bigger scale in America than any of us realize. Sol Schloss tells the clothing convention that the clothing industry has 1,200,000 employees and sells over 10,000 million dollars worth of garments a year.

What Americans spend on clothes in two years and three months would wipe out the entire national debt.

Fish

The gravest peril to our food supply is our vanishing coast fisheries. Secretary Hoover warns. The oyster and crab catches in the Atlantic are only a half of what they used to be. The same inroad has been made on Pacific salmon.

This country increasingly will have to rely more on its fisheries. The oceans should be restocked and fish protected as scientifically and thoroughly as we now farm our soil.

DOLLAR DRESSES ARE ATTACHED AT FAIR

SPRINGFIELD, ILL. (AP)—Six dresses, costing one dollar each to make and part of a complete street costume costing $3.50 are attracting many women to the exhibit of the State Fair school of Domestic Science. The fair school, held in connection with the Illinois State Fair, is in charge of Mrs. Frank I. Mann. It is she that is responsible for the creation of the inexpensive costumes.

The complete costume consists of a dress, coat and hat. Mrs. Mann has estimates to show that the dress costs one dollar, the hat one dollar, and the coat, $3.50.

During the sessions of the Domestic Science classes, attended by girls from all over the state, Mrs. Mann is demonstrating to the girl how the dresses can be made at such a small cost.

Mrs. Mann described several of the dresses for the benefit of newspaper correspondents.

"One is brown and white lawn, trimmed with bands of brown, simply made but considered smart," she said. "It required three and one half yards of material and took about the same number of hours to make."

"All the dresses are of simple lines and were fashioned from one pattern. Some of the dresses have sleeves 'set in' and others are of the simple 'butterfly' pattern. By simply adding a few touches of embroidery one dress can be made to look entirely different from another though both have been cut from the same pattern."

"One is a green percale, white dotted, with a neck ruffle of white organdie, hand plaited, and extending to the waist. Another is made of unbleached muslin trimmed with applied flowerings."

"The coat is made of soft grey cloth, the material costing $3.50 and three and one half yards used. Strips of material have been used as trimming. The lining is made from an old worn out foulard dress."

OPTIMISTIC REPORTS GIVEN TO COOLIDGE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18. (AP)—Optimistic reports given President Coolidge today on the political outlook in the east and in New England were tempered by a message that Senator LaFollette independent candidate, "had a fifty-fifty chance" in the northwestern states.

Representative Begg of Ohio told Mr. Coolidge the Republicans would carry New England solidly and carry New Jersey with prospects bright in New York. He has just returned from visits in these sections.

ing that the bank had adequate assets in the form of notes and other securities but did not of course keep on hand the entire amount of its capital and surplus in currency, and to call in cash would require the calling in of notes and an annoyance to the bank's customers. General Dawes replied that he would cash the check with pleasure. Mr. Lorimer asked what would be the charge; General Dawes replied, "nothing," that he would do it as an act of courtesy. A cashier's check of the National Bank was thereupon drawn, the auditor and Mr. Lorimer came with the check to the Central Trust company, presented the same for payment and the cash was delivered to Mr. Lorimer in the presence of the auditor and by Lorimer handed to the auditor who counted it and handed it back to Mr. Lorimer.

"The money was afterwards returned to the Central Trust company and the cashier's check of the National Bank taken up. A certificate was issued, certifying that the LaSalle Street Trust and Savings bank was duly organized. There was no interruption in the business of the LaSalle Street Bank, the stockholders of the National Bank by proper resolution became the stockholders of the state bank the assets theretofore owned by the national became the assets of the state bank which contributed to do business at the same office. *****

Checked by Auditor

The LaSalle Street Trust and Savings Bank, the state institution was under the supervision of the auditor from this date, October 1, 1912, and was examined by him in December 1912 and several times thereafter and continued to do business until June 11, 1914—more than eighteen months after its transfer from a national bank.

"General Dawes had been comptroller of the currency, and knew that the transfer from a national bank to a state bank could not be made unless the national bank was found by the comptroller of the currency to be a solvent institution. It was explained to him that this finding had been made, and besides that the transfer had been fully explained to the state auditor and by him approved. Both statements were true. It is plain therefore that General Dawes not only acted in entire good faith, but was actuated wholly by unselfish generosity."

EVANSTON, Ill., Sept. 18. (A. P.)—Another Republican drive against the LaFollette independent candidacy in its northwestern stronghold was opened tonight with the departure of Charles G. SMOKES ALONE ON ZR-3

Friedrichshafen, Germany.—Dr. Hugo Eckner, who will pilot the airship ZR-3 on her trip across the Atlantic, is the man who makes the rule that no one on board the vessel shall smoke at any time, and he is also the only man who breaks this rule.

Smoking on board an airship is exceedingly dangerous. An open flame might at any time ignite the gas. But the doctor, who is very fond of his pipe, occasionally locks himself in the pilot house and entirely alone, takes a short and hurried smoke.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION MEETS AT MATTOON

MATTOON, Ill. Sept. 18. (AP)—The Bloomfield Baptist association, representing congregations in 14 counties of this section of the state, was in session here today. STILL PRAISING TANLAC AFTER SEVEN YEARS

Mrs. W. D. Lloyd Says Both Herself And Husband Tell How Tanlac And Vegetable Pills Brought Good Health.

"After seven years' experience with Tanlac, my husband and I feel that nothing could take its place in our home," is the high valuation placed upon the famous treatment by Mrs. W. D. Lloyd, 7247 Stewart Avenue, Chicago.

"My husband first used Tanlac when the grip left him weak and emaciated and with his stomach awfully disordered. We will never forget how Tanlac awakened his appetite, ended his troubles and brought back his health. Two years ago, Tanlac again built him up from a badly run-down condition, and just recently he got to feeling weak and exhausted and suffering from rheumatism. So it was "back to Tanlac" and Tanlac is keeping up its splendid record for he is already much better.

"Last fall, I took Tanlac and the Vegetable Pills for headaches and backaches and obtained wonderful relief. We praise Tanlac constantly and several neighbors are taking it, with fine results, on our recommendation."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 440 million bottles sold.

THEY'RE SENTENCED TO HANG

By NEA Airmail Service

These youths, Bernard Grant and Walter Krauser, who at the time of their arrest were no older than Nathan F. Leopold Jr., and Richard A. Loeb, confessed slayers of Robert Franks, are endeavoring to escape the gallows on the ground they are too young to hang. Chief Justice John R. Caverly's decision in the Leopold-Loeb case has brought considerable attention to their won plight. Both are sentenced to be hanged next month.

ALL OF AVIATORS ARE YET UNMARRIED

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Sept. 18.—(AP)—Lieutenant Lowell H. Smith, commander of the army around the world fliers, stopping here tonight on their trip across the country, took occasion to deny that he or Lieutenant John Harding, observer with Lieutenant Erik Nelson, pilot of the New Orleans, are engaged. Contrary to reports, neither is betrothed, the commander said, failing to add, however, that marriage was not contemplated. It was stated several days ago that Lieutenant Harding was engaged to a girl employee at McCook Field, Dayton, Ohio. None of the airmen are married.

WOULD CIRCLE EARTH AGAIN, "IN YACHT"

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Sept. 18.—(AP)—Altho they have been around the world, the army airmen have seen little of fit, Lieutenant Lowell H. Smith, flight commander, declared tonight. "Just bits of country we saw when we glanced down," he said. When the flight is over, Lieutenant Smith plans on taking as much of a vacation as the army will grant him and when he is permitted to shed his khaki he contemplates spending most of the time hunting and fishing on the Pacific Coast. He isn't going to touch an airplane "stick," not because he is "stale" from too much flying, but because hunting and fishing are vocations of his. Asked if he would like to take another trip around the world, Lieutenant Smith smilingly said: "Yes, in a yacht."

Butter Retailers Accused of Holdup
CHICAGO, Sept. 18. (AP)—Retailers of storage butter are "holding up" the public, George McKay, secretary of the American Creamery Butter Manufacturers' association declared today in explanation of government figures showing increases of 53,501,000 pounds in storage butter on September 1, 1924, compared to the same date last year, and decreased wholesale prices and increased retail prices.

The figures showed the wholesale price of best grade storage butter on September 1, this year was 39 cents compared to 49 cents September 1, 1923, while retail prices for the same grade ranged from 53 to 55 cents on September 1 last year and 54 to 60 cents a pound on September 1, this year.

"The retailers simply are holding up the consumers," Mr. McKay asserted. "We have this heavy surplus and the make is increasing. Pastures have been good this year and are as good now as they should be in the spring. Of course the increase in population calls for an additional 24,000,000 pounds of butter a year. In 1923 the per capita consumption in this country was seven pounds."

WHEAT RISE DUE TO ARTIFICIAL CAUSES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18. (AP)—Recent statements that the very substantial rise in wheat prices was due to artificial causes were declared by Secretary Hoover today to have no foundation in fact.

"Two things have underlain this advance," the secretary said in a formal statement. "First, there are three hundred million bushels less of wheat in the world from this crop than that of last year. Second, the increased stability in Europe brought about thru activities of the administration has increased the buying power and outlook for consumption."

"The practical effect of all this is shown by the fact that our exports of 35,000,000 bushels in the last six weeks shows substantial increase over last year. There is every reason to believe that these exports will be maintained."

"Prices would probably have gone to higher levels had it not been that the farmer has crowded the market by sending in over 110,000,000 bushels out of this crop against 88,000,000 bushels for the same period last year. This is no doubt due to his necessities, but it has probably brought about lower prices than would otherwise have been the case."

KIWANIANS HEAR CONSTITUTION TALK

Dr. C. H. Rammelkamp Relates Growth of Constitution to Club Members Yesterday.

Dr. C. H. Rammelkamp, president of Illinois College very interestingly addressed the Kiwanis club at its noon day luncheon yesterday on the "Growth of the Constitution," in observance of Constitution Week.

Dr. Rammelkamp's address was preceded by reports by M. E. Hulett, delegate to the Galesburg convention, and also chairman of the On to Galesburg committee, and other members of this committee. Each member was very enthusiastic in his description of the convention.

Mr. Hulett said that he was most favorably impressed by a talk made at the meet on "What is a Citizen." The speaker then went on to give in a very convincing manner his idea of a citizen. He said there are two classes of citizens, the one who does good for the community in which he lives and the one who just lives and gets all out of his community he can without giving back anything. Mr. Hulett's line of thought followed along the lines of the Kiwanians interest in good citizenship and what they are no trying to accomplish.

JmlBththought 12345 345 5 5

Dr. Rammelkamp paid a fine tribute to the forefathers of the United States constitution explaining some of the struggles that were undergone in establishing it. He said, we like to think of our government as the best in the world and still there are those that would transform it.

However, there are facts about our constitution which cannot be denied. It is the oldest republic in existence in the world and it is not to be denied that the constitution of the United States has established a country of the widest extent over widely conflicting interests. Never has so vast a country having such conflicting interests been brought together under one government. A system of government, and a constitution which has made it possible is something worth considering. It suggests that the constitution must have something of merit.

The constitution of the United States was not a new creation. It was a growth, not an invention, or a theoretical product. It was based on the experience of the French constitution. The French constitution lasted but a few years because the framers did the opposite of the men who drafted our constitution. Our constitution was the product of both recent and remote experiences of the men who framed it.

Dr. Rammelkamp then cited certain clauses of the constitution which indicated that the constitution was framed upon the remote experiences of the framers. While the experiences of men in the early centuries were taken into consideration in drafting the constitution there were immediate conditions that also existed that affected its nature. The victory at Yorktown did not establish at once the government of the United States and the treaty was adopted in 1783 did not establish it.

The articles of confederation has neither president nor judiciary and because of this the Continental Congress was weak. The best men of the country did not care to take part in such a group of nonentities. Such was the small interest taken in the government that out of 91 members of this congress only 23 voted on the ratification of the Paris treaty. But out of this chaos grew a constitution which was sound because it was based on what experience of themselves and their ancestors had found by trial to be best.

Dr. Garm Norbury, president of the club announced that it had been requested that the Kiwanians lead the singing at a community affair which is to be held at Nichols park next Sunday.

Guests at the club were M. R. Campbell, Mattoon; Marion Maxwell, Ft. Atkinson, Wis.; Robert Capps, J. C. McNally, St. Louis; Dr. William Kraupner and Harve Clemens of the Illinois Conservatory of Music.

GIVING TREES THE NEEDED CARE

A suggestion was made recently that Jacksonville should have a forestry department, probably as a part of the duties of the park commission. The care of trees is but very little is done about it except as occasionally an individual property owner takes special interest in the work.

This is true just now of Mrs. T. J. Pitner, who is having some experienced men do work needed on many of the beautiful trees at Fairview. Some of these trees have been trimmed, others "mended" and for still others special plans have been carried out for feeding the roots. Where the foliage of trees shows that they have not been getting all the proper nourishment, a food has been provided by the digging of trenches and placing therein fertilizer of the particular kind needed. While this work costs money, it is exceedingly worth while.

LIONS CLUB MEMBERS HEAR TALK ON JUTE

Robert Forsythe Addressed The Clubmen at Their Dinner Last Night on The Production of Fibre.

The Jacksonville Lions club members were interestingly entertained last night at their dinner at the Dunlap hotel by an exceedingly informing talk by Robert Forsythe of Chicago, president of the American Fibre corporation. Mr. Forsythe spoke on origin of fibre and its uses.

His talk was made more interesting owing to the fact that he dwelt in part on the growth of jute along the Illinois river which is now in an experimental stage. The land on which jute is now being grown has been considered worthless in the past, but it is hoped that the growth of this product will make it into valuable real estate.

The speaker has a wide and comprehensive knowledge of jute from its growth to its manufacture into articles of usefulness. He has traveled into the jute industrial section of India and along the Medeterranian Sea in his search for information on this product and is now applying this knowledge in an attempt to grow the fibre in Illinois. He said, if it is possible to grow jute in this country American manufacturers will be relieved of paying tribute amounting to millions of dollars to foreign countries.

MATRIMONY

Moxon-Boddy

A very pretty home wedding occurred yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Moxon when their daughter, Miss Pearl became the bride of Louis Boddy of Markham. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. L. Pontius pastor of Central Christian church. The couple was unattended and only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present.

Proceeding the ceremony, Miss Eleanor Ludwig sang "Until" and "At Dawning." At 4 o'clock the bride party entered the living room of the Moxon home to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march. Mrs. C. A. Owings, sister of the bride was at the piano.

The bride was attired in a becoming gown of pink canton crepe and satin and carried a bouquet of bride's roses and ferns. The bouquet which was later thrown from the stairway was caught by Miss Alma Smith.

The home was profusely decorated, the color scheme being pink and white. Many potted plants, ferns, baskets of cut flowers and golden rod were in the living room. In the bow-window the bride party stood before a bower of autumn flowers.

A sumptuous wedding supper was served at the close of which the cutting of the bride's cake afforded considerable amusement. Mrs. Ida Kitter drew the darning needle, Mrs. J. P. Moxon the ring, Harry Killam the thimble and Chester Thomason the dime.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Moxon and attended the city schools graduating from Jacksonville high school and Brown's Business College. Until recently she was assistant to the dean at Illinois Woman's College.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Boddy of Markham. He attended the county schools and later graduated from Brown's Business college in this city.

The couple departed in their car amidst showers of rice and good wishes and will be at home after October 1st in a newly built and furnished bungalow on the groom's farm in the Markham community.

PROTEST AGAINST WOMEN SMOKING ON STREETS

PARIS (AP)—A protest is being raised in the Paris Press against smoking by women in the streets.

"After the theatre," expostulates one writer, "it has become an ordinary sight to see a woman produce her cigarette and puff away as she strolls homeward, just like the men. It is mostly foreign women, however, who set this far from graceful example, and we hope they will not find many followers among their French sisters."

PAPERS IN MONMOUTH REVERT TO OLDTIME STYLE AFTER STORM

Combine Two Papers and Set Type By Hand—Radio is Used

MONMOUTH, Ill.—Old time printers and typesetters, generally discarded in modern newspaper shops, came into their own again for one day in this city during a windstorm which swept the entire light and power system out of commission, forcing The Monmouth Daily Review and The Atlas, city newspapers, to combine into a two-page "hand-set" issue.

When it was learned that there would be no electric power, business managers of both papers got together all employees who could set type and started to work on a handset paper. Newer men, who had entered the office as linotype operators, were practically useless, since their days of typesetting were limited.

Telegraph service was cut off, and the only national news was brought to the office by radio. Editors of the papers, unable to leave the town because of impassable roads, chartered an aeroplane and made a survey of the surrounding country. Telephone communication impossible, the papers had to rely on "carriers" from nearby towns to bring in county news. Nearby news of the storm was gathered by reporters who traveled about on bicycles, in automobiles and on foot.

Paper for the edition was twelve year old stock, saved for such an emergency by the review. The issue had to be run off on a job press, operated by a gasoline engine. One pressman worked on the printing of the edition, and stayed at the press from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until 10 o'clock at night.

The storm edition cost five times as much as any regular edition, the business managers estimate, although it was composed of but two pages. The paper carried no advertising, and no press service news.

Why do you eat Bran?

TO FIGHT CONSTIPATION—the most dangerous condition your system can become chained to—to get free from blearny biliousness, dull headaches, nausea—etc., etc.!!!

Rid yourself of this dangerous condition—or start "slipping" and become a prey to any one of the most dreaded human ailments which have their beginning with constipation and toxic poisoning!

Fight constipation as you would fight fire! Fight it with bran—Kellogg's—BECAUSE IT IS ALL BRAN! Don't temporize! Don't waste time and health by going half-way! You need ALL BRAN; you need the bulk, the "roughage" of ALL BRAN, because it sweeps, cleanses and purifies!

REALIZE THIS—foods with a part bran content can only relieve constipation in proportion to the amount of bran they contain! If they are 25 or 50 per cent bran—you may get 25 or 50 per cent relief!

REMEMBER THIS—Kellogg's is ALL BRAN and is guaranteed to give you positive and permanent relief if you will eat two table-spoonfuls daily, or as much with each meal in chronic cases!

Don't delay; don't fuss with half-way measures! You have too much at stake! All grocers sell—

LATEST NEWS OF THE SPORTING WORLD

THEY ARE, THEY'RE NOT, O YES THEY ARE

After All, the Cardinals Have Signed to Appear Here On October 1st With Regulars, Says Smith.

On again, off again, on again—you know the rest. But it seems that the date of the Indies with the St. Louis Cardinals is now finally fixed, and unless there is more, along the noted Finnegan-Flanagan historical line of talk, the Cards will really appear in Jacksonville on October 1st for an exhibition game against the Jacksonville Indians.

The main trouble has been that Smith could not get a guarantee that the visitors would bring a real string of ball-players, and not a lot of rookies fresh from the brush, and as he could not get that assurance, the game was dropped. Later, the business manager must have had a change of heart, for he again got in touch with the Jacksonville manager, gave assurance that all the regulars, with the exception of Rogers Hornsby, who has arranged a little barnstorming trip all his own, would appear here for the exhibition game. The coming visitors, although not pennant possibilities, are a hard hitting bunch, and the crowd October 1st should be a record breaker, for the local fans have shown a willingness to turn out when real players visit South Side Park.

Smith is beginning to lay his battle plans to give the Cards as much of an argument as possible. According to his present plans, he will not import any pitching talent, as he has both Lowder and Freyman, either one of whom should be about as good as he might get in hiring an extra. And while on this subject, "Hank" Boyd can not be overlooked from a pitching standpoint, as he has systematically delivered the goods every time he has taken the box on the local field in an emergency. Boyd was formerly a pitcher and has a world of speed and plenty of foibles, but he prefers to play an infield position and save his wing, so it is only by persuasion that he will consent to take up the burden of the box when it is necessary to help out his teammates. And it is just possible that he may start the Card-Indies contest. If he fails to deliver a good brand of goods it will be the first time since his connection with the local team. It is not expected that the Indies will cope the game but the idea is to give the visitors strong enough competition that they will have to show their stuff to capture the exhibition.

One of the Bauman boys of the Beardsdon team may be secured to bolster up the team for this game.

HAGEN PLAYS DERR IN SEMI FINALS

FRENCH LICK, Ind., Sept. 18. (AP)—Walter Hagen, New York, British open golf champion, will play Ray Derr of Philadelphia and Jim Barnes, New York, formerly national open champion will meet Larry Nabholz, Lima, Ohio in the semi-final round for the national professional golf championship as the result of today's 36 hole matches at the French Lick championship course.

Hagen had considerable difficulty in eliminating John Farrell, New York and the youngster threatened, time and again to overcome the British open champion, even scoring two under par on the first nine of the second round. Hagen was not putting as well as usual and Farrell played Hagen even all the way.

Derr owes his victory over Al Epifanio of Chicago to some of the most startling putting that has been displayed in a long time. The Philadelphia once he landed on the carpet, pushed the ball into hole from all distances and probably holed a dozen putts averaging 20 feet in length.

Obscure Pennsylvania Hamlet Basks in Spotlight as Birthplace of Washington's Boss

Maybe you never heard of Port Jervis, Pa. Neither did we. Until the other day, when some relentless historian disclosed the little Pennsylvania hamlet as the birthplace of Stanley Harris, sensational kid manager of the Washington Senators, likely winners of the American League championship.

Harris was born there 28 years ago. He has been with Washington since 1919. Buffalo had him the year before. Prior to that he was with Reading, Norfolk, Muskegon and Scranton.

Also he had brief trials with Detroit and Pittsburgh, getting his start with the Pirates in 1915. He's five feet nine inches, weighs 160 lbs and throws right handed and is one of the most popular men in baseball.

CLASSIC PLAYS OF THE GRIDIRON

When The Great Gipp of Notre Dame Used His Brain And Made The West Pointers Look Silly

BY KNUTE K. ROCKNE
Notre Dame University Coach
It was in the Army-Notre Dame game of 1917 that the play I have decided was the greatest I have ever seen in football was pulled.

Throughout the first half, the West Pointers had outplayed us and, as a consequence, were leading 2 to 0. But in the second half our running attack worked from midfield to the Army seven-yard line, mainly thru the passing and running of George Gipp, who was the fourth down and goal to make.

Notre Dame took time out to plan the next move. As I have said, it had been Gipp, Gipp, Gipp in the march down the field and now it was Gipp again who saw the way to a touchdown. Army would watch him closely on this last, all-important play. Gipp felt confident of that. So he suggested a bold stroke.

The quarterback barked. The ball was snapped and Gipp and the fullback went breaking into the line—but not with the ball. Brandy, an other back, had that and he was catapulting madly, unscathed, in an opposite direction. In fact, so engrossed were the West Pointers with stopping Gipp that Brandy was across the line before he was even seen.

The cheers that went up were for Brandy, for the public seems to watch only the ball-carrier. But equal credit at least belongs to Gipp for his brilliant headwork and to the linemen who opened the hole for Brandy.

Wits put over that touchdown, just as they do in business or anywhere. The lesson it teaches also applies universally. Don't devote all your attention to one man. Keep your eyes on the ball.

TEN INNINGS NEEDED FOR YANKS TO WIN

Brown Are Defeated 2 to 1 in Over-time Session—Bush Up as Pinch Hitter in Ninth Connects with Circuit Drive

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 18.—The New York Yankees maintained their tie with Washington for leadership in the American League pennant race by defeating the St. Louis Browns today 2 to 1, in a game that went 10 innings. The Yanks thus made a clean sweep of their series here.

A pass off Shawkey in the second inning with the bases filled gave the locals their only run. The game was scoreless then until the ninth when Bush, pinch hitting for Witt, hit over the left field fence for a home run. McNally brought in the winning run when, running for Hofmann who had doubled, he advanced to third and scored on Scott's fly to Jacobson.

Washington and St. Louis open a three game series here tomorrow.

Dodgers Now Rest Within Half a Game of the League Leading Giants—Tigers Continue to Slip

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Washington and New York maintained their precarious balance at the peak of the American League today by sweeping victories on western battlefields. At the same time the lock step formation in the National League continued with the Dodgers treading on the heels of the Giants.

The American League leaders left Detroit further in the race today when they crushed their western foes, Washington winning the third straight from Cleveland, while the Yankees were forced to ten innings to subdue the fighting Browns.

The Tigers virtually saw their pennant hopes blasted by Philadelphia dynamite. The Athletics winning their third straight.

Brooklyn improved its pennant chances by winning two games from St. Louis, while the Giants split even with the Cincinnati Reds. The Dodgers now trail the Giants by one half game.

MISS COLLETT WINS HER WAY TO FINALS

HAMILTON, Ontario, Sept. 18.—American hopes in the Canadian women's open golf championship today came to rest on the slender shoulders of Miss Glenna Collett of Providence, R. I. She won her way thru the third round today with comparative ease, and thru date of the draw eliminated a fellow American, Mrs. Louis Reinhardt of Chicago. Miss Collette was the only American to emerge from the third round.

Mrs. H. D. Sterrett of Hutchinson, Kansas, and Mrs. F. C. Letts of Lake Forest, Illinois, the only other Americans in the third round fell before Mrs. Ada Mackenzie and Mrs. Hope Gibson of Hamilton, respectively.

Tomorrow in the semi-final round Miss Collette will meet Mrs. Gibson and Miss Mackenzie will engage Mrs. Harold Hutchings of Winnipeg, who today defeated Mrs. F. J. Mulqueen of Toronto.

JACKSON AND MOSSMAN RETAIN PERFECT SCORES
Minneapolis, Sept. 18.—Frank Jackson, Kellerton, Iowa, world's champion and his protegee, "Putte" Mossman, Eldora, Iowa, had clean slates in the professional men's class when play was resumed today in the national horseshoe tournament. Mossman has seven victories and no defeats as the result of yesterday's play while Jackson has won five and lost none.

Outfielder-Manager Sells Himself to Yankees for $11,000 and Keeps the Cash Returns

Frank Walker
The Yankees got word of the fine form a young outfielder by the name of Frank Walker was displaying for the Mount Royal team in the Virginia League. So they sent one of their business agents down to look him over.

Duly impressed, said agent inquired for the manager of the team.

"I'm the manager," replied Mr. Walker.

"Well, how'd you like to go to the New York club?" the business agent asked.

"All right, I'll go in and talk turkey with the owner of this club."

Mr. Walker touched the business agent on the arm. "I'm the owner," he informed.

"You don't sweep up the park, too, do you?" exclaimed the surprised metropolitan visitor.

Mr. Walker assured him that he did not, and in a few minutes he had sold himself to Miller Huggins' clan for $11,000.

And being the star, manager and owner, Mr. Walker quite naturally kept the money himself.

GIANTS GO FIFTY-FIFTY IN GAMES WITH REDS

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—The New York Giants divided a doubleheader with Cincinnati today and retained their lead in the National League pennant battle by a half game. The champions dropped the first game to the Reds 5 to 3 but rallied to capture the second 7 to 5, part of which was witnessed by the Prince of Wales.

It was the prince's first glimpse of America's national game and he seemed to enjoy it. A four run rally in the seventh inning clinched the game for the Reds and drove Howard Baldwin, rookie twirler from the mound after he had pitched brilliant for six innings. Eddie Roush cleared the bases with a triple and scored the fourth run himself on Bressler's single.

Dazzy Vance Finishes Game for Brooklyn in First Contest—Scores 7 to 5 and 4 to 2

BROOKLYN, Sept. 18.—Brooklyn won both games of a doubleheader with St. Louis here today, 7 to 5 and 4 to 2 and advanced to within a half a game of the lead when the Giants split with the Cincinnati Reds.

The first game was a 12-inning affair the Dodgers emerging victorious after a seesaw session.

Dazzy Vance, Brooklyn's star pitcher was sent in as relief after "Dutch" Ruether had been knocked out and Grimes had suffered an injury to his right arm when hit by a pitched ball.

The speed king was credited with his fifteenth straight victory and his 27th of the season. Incidentally, he fanned six batters in the four innings he worked and brought his total up to 234.

Zach Wheat won the second game for the Dodgers with a home run in the twelfth, his 14th of the season, with Mitchell on base.

WHITE SOX TAKE ALL OF BOSTON GAMES

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—Chicago drove Fullerton off the mound in the first inning today and made a clean sweep of the series with Boston 7 to 3. The game was a free hitting affair, with Eddie Collins having a perfect day with five hits in as many times up.

The fielding of Collins and Davis was a feature. The game was stopped for one minute at 4:30 p. m., while the players and fans stood with bowed heads out of respect to Frank Chance, who was buried in Los Angeles today. Chance had been manager of both clubs.

Market Report

Associated Press

PART OF LOSSES
ON CORN REGAINED

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Broad new demand for corn sprang up today following yesterday's big collapse in prices. A forecast of cooler weather with possibility of frost tonight over Montana and Wyoming did a good deal to stimulate new buying. Closing quotations for corn were strong 1c to 2c net higher December 1.04 to $1.09. Wheat closed firm 1 1/2 to 2 1/2c up oats at 1c to 1c gain and provisions varying from unchanged figures to a rise of 25c.

Buying in the corn market although largely on the part of recent sellers who were in a position to collect profits, appeared also to be a surprising extent representative of fresh purchasing from traders who looked for an upward movement in prices, and who had been awaiting a chance to take hold at an advantage. An accumulation of overnight orders to sell stood in the way, however, of any rally at the opening. Continued favorable weather was likewise an obstacle and so too were increased speculative offerings which developed as soon as the market scored an early fractional gain.

Lowest prices for corn since late in August were reached in the ensuing drop but losses were soon more than wiped out and during the last hour the upward swing of the market acquired a momentum which yesterday would have seemed quite out of the question.

Purchases of the December delivery for cash houses were a feature today which attracted much attention. Meanwhile rural offerings remained small and many crop reports at hand placed stress on need of ideal weather until well into October.

Wheat and oats rallied with corn. A good cash demand here for wheat was in evidence with exporters participating and the September delivery gained nearly a cent on the December.

Export buying of large strengthened the provision market.

CHICAGO CASH GRAIN

Chicago, Sept. 18.—Cash wheat was unchanged today compared with yesterday's close. Premiums and discounts were unchanged to 2c better for hard and yellow hard, and firm for other grades.
Shipping sales here were 335,000 bushels of which 250,000 bushels were to exporters. New York estimated 500,000 bushels taken for export. Deliveries on September contracts were 650,000 bushels.
Corn was unchanged at the close with the trading basis unchanged to 1c easier. Shipping sales here were 140,000 bushels and deliveries 140,000 bushels.

Oats—finished unchanged. The trading was 1c easier to 1c better.
Shipping sales here were 100,000
bushels and deliveries 75,000 bushels.

Corn 236; Oats 182.

CHICAGO BUTTER
MARKET.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—The but-
and unsettled with trading dull; street stocks showed an accumulation and dealers were anxious sellers even to the point of offering concessions in order to effect sales. Buyers displayed no confidence and practically no business was reported. The centralized car market was weak and in the buyers favor. Offerings were liberal at listed prices.

street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. E. Ellison, pastor of the First Baptist church, in the presence of a company of immediate relatives, including Mr. and Mrs. James, Mrs. Catherine Wahl, mother of the bride, Mrs. John Wahl, Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Griffin. This is an exceptionally worthy young couple. The groom has for the past few years been assisting his father as track foreman with the C. & A. railroad, and the bride is a well known school teacher, having taught the past term at Kamsville and did not accept reappointment for the present term. Both come from a line of first class people, and the congratulations are sincere and wholesome. The couple will reside on Ross street, directly opposite the home of the groom's parents.

The dramatic talent of the Highstreet neighborhood, six miles southwest of White Hall, recently presented a comedy in the church there, entitled "A Man in the House," with such success that it is to be again presented in Universalist church, four miles southwest, on Friday evening of this week. The Highstreet talent has maintained an organization called the Historic society and its presentations have been for some popular benefit. The present offering is for the benefit of the Highstreet M. E. church.

The provision of high grade talent during the winter months on a par with the chautauqua season is henceforth to be managed by the formation of a local organization in the Chamber of Commerce rooms Tuesday afternoon, with H. E. Bell as president and Roy E. Welch secretary-treasurer. The events will be held in the new high school, the first being Cleaver Opera Singers on October 23. Any surplus goes to the high school. The Artellie Dickson Concert Co. will appear on November 14 and the Victorian Serenaders on December 3, giving an idea of the high grade of the offerings. Frank Church is slated for December 20 and Emily Waterman for January 20.

A recent visitor to White Hall was Mrs. Florence Sharnon Altizer of Fayetteville, Ark., who was the guest of Miss Alice Potts. She is the daughter of Charles H. Sharnon, a resident of Fayetteville. The latter at one time resided in White Hall, and here he was married to Miss McFadden, sister of the late George McFadden, who died in South St. Paul about a year ago. Mr. Sharnon was one of the civil engineers employed in the construction of the Union Pacific railroad, and his career in that capacity was interestingly revived last May on the anniversary of the completion of that first transcontinental railroad by publication of an article concerning David Lemon and his presentation of the historical iron spike to the White Hall library, this spike being the one that marked the completion of the road on the great day in American history, May 9, 1869, an event that has since been used to illustrate the cover of a great mail-order catalog. Mr. Sharnon was rewarded in his quest for further information by learning that the reigning president of the Union Pacific railroad came from his present town of Fayetteville, and now Mr. Sharnon finds himself a guest of that great railroad system on a tour of its lines in order that he might view his early work as an engineer. He is 83 years of age, writes an elegant hand, and appears to be a man of 50. Mr. Sharnon may visit White Hall next year as a guest of the railway historical club.

Rev. J. O. Raines, who is conducting a Baptist revival under a large tent in the Ceres neighborhood, east of Roodhouse, reports that the campaign when the interest in the present meetings permits immense audiences are attending nightly. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Porter are here from Osceola, Mo., on their first visit in several years.

V. E. T. Smoker's Letter On Home-Brand Smoking Discussed by Oldtimer

Jacksonville, Illinois, September 12, 1924

Secretary, Cigarmakers Union, City.

Dear Sir:—

A group of us old fellows were sitting together up town the other day, discussing the weather, hay fever, crops, the automobile, the hard road bond issue, and other things—you know how it is—when one of the old chaps spoke up with: 'say, what do you think about this advertising that's been running for sometime, telling people that the cigar industry in old Jacksonville was badly shot because so many smokers had gone to buying cigars made away from here?'

Well, there was right smart of discussion for awhile for and against the idea, and one fellow asked if we read the letter in last week's paper signed by V. E. T. Smoker, and remarked that he thought he hit the nail square on the head and that any Jacksonville resident was a pretty poor sort of a booster if he didn't confine his smoking to home brands, particularly when the quality was so superior and the prices the same.

Well, that led to some more discussion andy it was quick shown that to have a town you must have industries, and to keep the industries home folks must do their part.

Say, in that bunch that day there were four who had been smoking outside cigars and who hadn't ever given the matter any thought either way, but when we got through they each bought a home cigar and said that was going to be their buy hereafter.

One of 'em did say he thought the brands ought to be advertised so a fellow wouldn't be fooled when he wasn't posted so very well on cigars and had always had the idea a smoke was a smoke, and that this was all there was to it.

Well, let the good work go on, and when you write to V. E. T. Smoker tell him we're with him and will try to convert a few on our own account.
